

Wirecard AG again most traded share on Tradegate Exchange in March

Wirecard AG was again the most traded share on Tradegate Exchange in March with a trading volume of 1.4 billion Euros. A total trading volume of 9.6 billion Euros was achieved compared with 9.2 billion Euros in March last year. This makes Tradegate Exchange the largest trading venue in Germany after the Xetra platform of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange.

Equities generated by far the highest trading volume with 8.9 billion Euros. Apart from Wirecard AG investors favoured German shares Bayer with 207 million Euros, Deutsche Telekom with 205 million Euros and Allianz with 186 million Euros.

Most traded foreign stocks were Amazon.com with a turnover of 354 million Euros, Apple with 194 million Euros and Aurora Cannabis with 111 million Euros.

About Tradegate Exchange

Tradegate Exchange is a stock exchange specialising in executing private investors' orders. Over 30 trading participants from Germany, Austria and the United Kingdom are currently connected and offer access to their customers from their own country and abroad. Around 4,700 equities, 1,700 ETPs, 3,200 bonds and 2,000 investment funds can be traded. Orders are usually executed in full. Tradegate Exchange does not charge any transaction fees. Tradegate provides investors with a continuous overview of what is happening on the market: real-time prices are available for the DAX, MDAX, SDAX and TecDAX indices and can also be accessed by smartphone using the Tradegate app. The app is free and has been downloaded more than 50,000 times. In January 2010 Tradegate Exchange was set up as a regulated market as defined in the MiFID. Managing directors are Thorsten Commichau and Oliver Szabries. Deutsche Börse AG has a 75 percent interest plus 1 share in Tradegate Exchange GmbH, the stock exchange operator of Tradegate Exchange. www.tradegate.de

Media contact:

Patrick Kalbhenn

Media Relations, Tel. +49-(0) 69-2 11-1 47 30